

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER
GYMNASTICS ONTARIO

Gymnastics Ontario, a leader in promoting gymnastics as a fundamental building block to lifelong healthy activity, is currently searching for a dynamic, influential, and business savvy CEO who will:

- provide programs and support to ensure Ontario has strong and healthy athletes, coaches, officials and clubs
- ensure effective and efficient administrative systems are in place to support a modern public sport organization that is member focused
- enhance the financial stability of GO by increasing revenue diversification
- achieve partnership / sponsorship arrangements for programs and events
- establish budgets and maintain appropriate systems of financial control

Interested candidates should have:

- Executive level experience in all aspects of management.
- Sound financial management skills including budget creation and management.
- Track record of partnership and sponsorship development
- A passion for leading teams to strive for excellence.
- An uncanny ability to assess member needs and surpass expectations in customer delivery.
- Thorough knowledge of the Not-for Profit environment, the Canadian Sport System, the sport of Gymnastics, and the club structure in Ontario
