Contravention of this Policy will be subject to review, investigation, and disciplinary and remedial action. Contravention may also result in Gymnastics Nova Scotia contacting law enforcement officials or taking legal action where necessary. The following Policy describes various offences and types of unacceptable behaviour and should be read in conjunction with the Code of Ethics and Conduct Policy.

17.2 SCOPE OF POLICY

The Gymnastics Nova Scotia Abuse, Maltreatment, and Discrimination Policy applies to:

- a. All full-time and part-time employees (permanent, temporary, or fixed term) of Gymnastics Nova Scotia and all consultants, contractors, and other service providers who may provide services to Gymnastics Nova Scotia;
- b. Members of the Gymnastics Nova Scotia Board of Directors and committees;
- c. Athletes, coaches, managers, integrated support team members, judges, and technical observers participating in Gymnastics Nova Scotia and Gymnastics Canada competitions, training camps, tryouts, programs, and activities;
- d. Parents, guardians, and spectators observing Gymnastics Nova Scotia and Gymnastics Canada training and competitions;
- e. All members of Gymnastics Nova Scotia;
- f. Coach developers;
- g. Volunteers at events hosted by Gymnastics Nova Scotia;
- h. Volunteers appointed to accompany teams to events, training camps, competitions, or other activities;
- i. Affiliate organizations and international guests; and
- j. Members of the public whose behaviour is directed at the persons and members listed above and occurs at any Gymnastics Nova Scotia competitions, training camps, tryouts, programs, events (including social events), or other activities.

17.3 ABUSE AND MALTREATMENT

(Adapted from Stirling, 2009; Canadian Centre for Child Protection's Commit to Kids)

Abuse and maltreatment tend to be categorized based on the nature of the relationship in which the behaviour occurs. Specifically, physical abuse, emotional abuse, sexual abuse, and neglect tend to occur in a critical relationship, in which an individual is dependent upon another individual in a position of authority or trust for safety, trust, and fulfillment of needs. Examples of critical relationships include but are not limited to parent-athlete or coach-athlete relationships. Conversely, harassment, bullying, and hazing typically occur in other types of relationships in sport, where a dependency relationship does not exist per se (e.g., relationships between peers or colleagues). In these relationships, power imbalances are often present between the individuals but tend not to be officially prescribed positions of authority or trust. In general, an individual's behaviours do not have to be intended to harm for the behaviour to qualify as abuse, harassment, and/or discrimination. Instead, abuse, harassment, and discrimination is characterized by the deliberate nature of the action and the repetition of behaviour over time. Note that a single instance of such deliberate behaviour may result in harm to an individual or a group of people and thus, may constitute abuse, harassment, or discrimination.

The descriptions below provide broad definitional parameters of the various types of abuse and maltreatment that may occur in the sport environment. The subsequent examples are used to help differentiate between behaviours but should not be taken as an exhaustive list.

17.3.1 Physical Abuse

Physical abuse refers to the exercise of physical force by a person or contact or non-contact behaviour that has the potential to cause physical harm or inflict physical injury to someone. These behaviours may be overtly forceful (e.g., hitting, punching, shaking, pushing) and/or subtle (e.g., squeezing, restraining, pinching, or displaying threatening gestures). Physical abuse may occur as a result of inappropriate or excessive physical measures of punishment, including but not limited to, denying access to nutritional needs, conditioning to the point of vomiting, deliberately disregarding medical advice, and/or forcing a premature return to training or competition following a serious injury or concussion, overstretching, and excessive repetition of skill to the point of injury. A statement or behaviour that can reasonably be interpreted as a threat to exercise physical force against someone is also considered physical abuse.

17.3.2 Emotional Abuse

Emotional abuse refers to a pattern of deliberate non-contact behaviours that have the potential to cause harm. These behaviours may be verbal (e.g., shouting, belittling, humiliating, intimidating, name-calling, degrading) or non-verbal (e.g., denial of attention and support, hitting or throwing objects in frustration, social isolation, stalking). Emotional abuse is often at the foundation of all other forms of maltreatment.

Although such behaviour is usually persistent, pervasive, or patterned in nature, a single incidence of such behaviour that causes high intensity emotional trauma and therefore has a lasting harmful effect on a person may also qualify as emotional abuse.

17.3.3 Sexual Abuse

Sexual abuse refers to any sexual interaction with a person(s) of any age that is perpetrated against the victim's will, without consent, or in an aggressive, exploitative, coercive, manipulative, or threatening manner. Sexually abusive behaviours can be contact (e.g., inappropriate touching, intercourse, reward for sexual favours) or non-contact (e.g., indecent exposure, sexually oriented comments or jokes, voyeurism, intimidating sexual remarks, advances, suggestions or requests, sexually intrusive questions, displaying or sharing of obscene or pornographic images or materials).

17.3.4 Neglect

Neglect refers to acts of omission in care and/or general deprivation of attention. Neglect occurs when an individual fails to protect and nurture the health and welfare of others in their care, including but not limited to denying adequate hydration, nutrition, or medical attention, abandonment of an athlete following a poor training or competitive result, inadequate supervision, chronic rejection, prohibiting social relations within or outside sport, ignoring an injury, or failure to intervene when made aware of misconduct.

17.3.5 Harassment

Harassment includes Workplace Harassment and Sexual Harassment and refers to a course of vexatious conduct or comments and unwanted or coerced behaviours that the person knew or ought reasonably to have known would be unwelcome and inappropriate or otherwise offensive to another person or group of people. In the case of Workplace Harassment, the vexatious conduct or comments is made towards a worker, in the workplace, and must be investigated pursuant to the Occupational Health and Safety Act.

Harassing behaviours include comments, conduct, actions, or gestures directed toward an individual or group of individuals, which are insulting, intimidating, humiliating, malicious, or offensive. An individual or group may experience harassment as a result of their race or perceived race, ancestry, nationality or national origin, citizenship, place of origin, colour, ethnic or linguistic background or origin, religion, political belief, age, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, marital status, family status, social condition or disadvantage, physical or mental disability or related characteristics, disfigurement, criminal record, source of income, or any other prohibited ground of discrimination in accordance with applicable human rights legislation.

Forms of harassment in sport may include, but are not limited to, physical harassment (e.g., pushing, shoving, hitting, pinching, grabbing), sexual harassment (e.g., vulgar, degrading or lewd comments, repeated propositions to engage in sexual conduct), emotional harassment (e.g., offensive or hostile expressions or gestures, put-down jokes, stalking), gender harassment, racial harassment, and homophobia (e.g., referring to someone's gender, race, sexual orientation or expression in negative, vulgar, or derogatory terms or exclusion of an individual based on those grounds).

Sexual Harassment includes making a sexual solicitation or advance where the person making the solicitation or advance is in a position to confer, grant, or deny a benefit or advancement to the individual and knows or ought reasonably to know that the solicitation or advance is unwelcome. A reprisal, or a threat, or implied threat of reprisal, for rejecting a sexual solicitation or advance is also prohibited.

Once again, a single incidence of such behaviour that has a lasting harmful effect on a person or a group of people may constitute harassment.

Bullying

Bullying refers to physical, verbal, or psychological attacks or intimidations that may cause fear, distress, or potential harm to others. These behaviours often occur between peers and may be characterized as direct, overt attacks (e.g., pushing, hitting, threatening, mocking) or indirect, relational attacks, such as gossip, spreading rumours, threatening to end friendship as a way to control others' behaviour, and social exclusion.

Bullying behaviours are typically repetitive in nature. However, a single instance of high intensity bullying may also qualify.

17.3.7

Hazing

Hazing refers to an abusive, often humiliating form of initiation expected of someone joining a group that degrades, or intentionally and recklessly endangers the mental and physical health of the person, regardless of the person's willingness to participate in the activity.

17.4 DISCRIMINATION

Discrimination is unfair or improper behaviour, whether intentional or not, that results in differential treatment of one or more individuals and that is related to one or more of any grounds of discrimination prohibited by human rights legislation, including but not limited to:

- race or perceived race
- ancestry, citizenship, nationality or national origin, place of origin, colour, ethnic or linguistic background or origin, including aboriginal origin
- religion, or creed, or religious belief, association or activity
- political belief, association, convictions, or activity
- age
- sex, including sex-determined characteristics such as pregnancy, the possibility of pregnancy, and circumstances related to pregnancy
- sexual orientation
- gender identity and gender expression
- marital status (including single status), family status, civil status, family association
- social condition or disadvantage
- physical or mental disability, or related characteristics or circumstances, including reliance on a service animal, a wheelchair, or any other remedial appliance or device, as well as disfigurement and any irrational fear of contracting an illness or disease
- criminal charges or criminal record
- source of income or receipt of public assistance
- actual or presumed association with another individual or class of individuals having any of the aforementioned prohibited grounds of discrimination

An individual does not have to intend to discriminate for the behaviour to be discrimination. It is enough if the individual knew or ought reasonably to have known that their behaviour would be inappropriate or unwelcome. A discriminatory practice is to deny access to goods, services, facilities, or accommodation customarily available to the general public or to differentiate adversely in relation to any individual, on a prohibited ground of discrimination.

Examples of conduct that may be considered discrimination include but are not limited to the following:

- stereotyping (assuming that an individual has certain traits, qualities, or beliefs)
- racial, ethnic, or religious jokes, slurs, nicknames, or mimicry
- practical jokes that cause awkwardness or embarrassment
- persisting with comments or jokes after becoming aware that the behaviour is unwelcome
- offering or withholding favours or employment benefits such as promotions, favourable evaluations, favourable assigned duties or shifts, conditioned on or related to a characteristic protected under any prohibited ground of discrimination

17.5 COMPLAINTS

An individual who believes they have experienced abuse, maltreatment or discrimination or witnessed misconduct that contravenes this Policy has the right and obligation to file a formal complaint under Gymnastics Nova Scotia's Complaints and Discipline Policy and Procedures.

If you have reasonable suspicion or believe that danger or violence are imminent or that a participant is in immediate danger or risk and/or is a victim of any form of abuse or neglect, you should:

- do nothing to put yourself in further risk;
- help the participant withdraw from the situation, if possible;
- inform others nearby of the situation, if possible;
- call 9-1-1 immediately where the situation requires immediate attention; and
- report the situation pursuant to the Complaints and Discipline Policy and Procedures.

17.6 REPRISAL PROHIBITED

Under no circumstances will Gymnastics Nova Scotia condone acts of retaliation by registered participants, by parents or legal guardians, or other supporters of registered participants against those individuals who have reported inappropriate behaviour or actions to Gymnastics Nova Scotia or Gymnastics Canada.

Similarly, no individual may retaliate against an individual who is accused of having acted inappropriately and contravened any policies. All participants are to report complaints under the Complaints and Discipline Policy and Procedures.

Any individual who believes that they, or someone else, has been subjected to unlawful reprisal must promptly report those concerns to Gymnastics Nova Scotia or Gymnastics Canada.

18.1 INTRODUCTION

The Gymnastics Nova Scotia Complaints and Discipline Policy and Procedures outlines the support offered by the association, and the procedures involved for investigating and resolving reported contraventions of the Gymnastics Nova Scotia Code of Ethics and Conduct Policy as well as remedying situations where such contraventions occur.

18.2 LINKED POLICIES

Gymnastics Nova Scotia's Complaints and Discipline Policy is an overarching organizational policy that applies to alleged violations of the following policies:

1. Code of Ethics and Conduct Policy
2. Provincial/National Safe Sport Policy
3. Abuse, Maltreatment and Discrimination Policy
4. Screening Policy
5. Travel Policy
6. Safety, Medical and Concussion Policy
7. Inclusion Policy
8. Anti-Doping Policy
9. Social Media Policy

Compliance with each of these Gymnastics Nova Scotia Policies is expected of all individuals within the Policy scope as set out under section 18.3 below. Compliance with the various Policies depends primarily on each individual's awareness and understanding of the behavioural standards expected from all gymnastics participants. Compliance is also reinforced by peer groups, the policy alignment of clubs and Member Associations, and when necessary, upon enforcement through this Complaint and Discipline Policy and Procedures.

Any person who believes that an individual or member within the Policy scope has failed to meet their obligations under any of the above noted policies, or has demonstrated behaviour that is prohibited under the Abuse, Maltreatment, and Discrimination Policy, is strongly encouraged to follow the reporting procedures outlined in this Complaints and Discipline Policy and Procedures. Failure to comply with the linked policies noted above may result in disciplinary and remedial action including but not limited to written warnings, educational training, mediation, loss of privileges, termination of employment or contract, probation, suspension, or expulsion from membership.

18.3 SCOPE OF POLICY

18.3.1 Policy Application

Gymnastics Nova Scotia's Complaints and Discipline Policy and Procedures applies to all persons and members listed below:

- a. All full-time and part-time employees (permanent, temporary, or fixed term) of Gymnastics Nova Scotia and all consultants, contractors, and other service providers who may provide services to Gymnastics Nova Scotia;
- b. Members of the Gymnastics Nova Scotia Board of Directors and committees;
- c. Athletes, coaches, managers, integrated support team members, judges and technical observers participating in Gymnastics Canada or Gymnastics Nova Scotia competitions, training camps, tryouts, programs, and activities;
- d. Parents, guardians, and spectators observing Gymnastics Canada or Gymnastics Nova Scotia training and competitions;
- e. All members of Gymnastics Nova Scotia
- f. Coach developers;
- g. Volunteers at events owned or hosted by Gymnastics Nova Scotia;
- h. Volunteers appointed to accompany teams to events, training camps, competitions, or other activities;
- i. Affiliate organizations, international guests, and members of visiting delegations; and
- j. Members of the public whose behaviour is directed at the persons and members listed above and occurs at any Gymnastics Canada or Gymnastics Nova Scotia competitions, training camps, tryouts, programs, events (including social events), or other activities.

18.3.2 The Multi-Jurisdictional Structure of Gymnastics in Nova Scotia

Gymnastics Nova Scotia works within a multi-jurisdictional sport structure with many member clubs having their own Conduct and Discipline policies. Many gymnastics clubs belonging to the provincial and territorial member associations have developed their own codes of conduct and expectations for participants, members, coaches, parents, and volunteers, among others. Gymnastics Nova Scotia encourages clubs to manage allegations of misconduct and complaints occurring in the programs and activities in their jurisdiction. However, Gymnastics Nova Scotia and Gymnastics Canada must be informed of any serious complaints received by a member association or club in order to maintain appropriate records and offer assistance, support, and/or escalate the complaint, if needed.

Where there is a question of jurisdiction, the Gymnastics Nova Scotia Executive Director or an appropriate external expert, shall determine which jurisdiction shall address the alleged misconduct. The GNS Executive Director or the external expert may seek board assistance and/or legal counsel prior to making this determination.

18.4 DEFINITIONS

18.4.1 Registered Participants

Each member club registers individual athletes, coaches, judges, volunteers, and other classes of members from within the applicable club with Gymnastics Nova Scotia on an annual basis. These individuals are referred to as "registered participants". A "minor registered participant" refers to a registered participant under the age of majority in the selected province or territory.

18.4.2 Complainant

The individual(s) alleging an infraction or contravention of any of the applicable policies and/or standards of conduct. This includes any individual acting on behalf of a registered participant, namely in the case of minors.

18.4.3 Respondent

The individual(s) alleged to have engaged in misconduct.

18.4.4 Case Manager

An individual appointed by Gymnastics Nova Scotia to receive, advise, investigate, and/or direct certain complaints under this Policy. The Case Manager should be a disinterested and neutral individual and must not be a member of Gymnastics Nova Scotia.

18.5 REPORTING OF COMPLAINTS TO GYMNASTICS NOVA SCOTIA

Every individual covered by this Policy has a responsibility to help promote a Safe Sport environment. This means not engaging in, allowing, condoning, or ignoring behaviour that violates the Code of Ethics and Conduct Policy or the Abuse, Maltreatment and Discrimination Policy. Every individual has a responsibility to support this program by taking measures to report incidents of misconduct.

Failure to report a violation of the law or this Policy is in itself a violation of this Policy and may result in disciplinary action. A formal complaint may be initiated by Gymnastics Nova Scotia any current or former registered participant of Gymnastics Nova Scotia and/or in the case of minors, any individual acting on behalf of the registered participant. A former registered participant must have been a registered participant at the time of the misconduct occurrence. Gymnastics Nova Scotia may have an obligation to investigate misconduct once becoming aware of an incident, even without a formal complaint.

Persons holding a position of trust or authority in a Gymnastics Nova Scotia program or activity, or those persons who are in an administrative position, have a responsibility to report infractions that they have witnessed or of which they have been made aware.

If an individual files a complaint on behalf of a minor registered participant, the individual also has the right to receive notices on behalf of the Complainant and be present at all dealings with the Complainant. In the event that the individual filing a complaint on behalf of the minor registered participant is not the participant's parent or legal guardian, the participant's parent or legal guardian must be informed and kept apprised of all matters at all stages in the process.

Complaints must be made by the Complainant or, particularly in the case of minors, an individual acting on behalf of the minor registered participant. While Gymnastics Nova Scotia encourages that complaints be made in writing, a complaint can also be made verbally to the Executive Director or the GNS Harassment Officer.

All written infractions must be reported through Gymnastics Nova Scotia using the Complaint Form (Appendix I.2), if possible, and filed to the address noted on the form and online on the Gymnastics Nova Scotia website. Additional attachments may be filed at the same time as the Complaint Form, if applicable.

An individual who files a complaint, i.e., the Complainant, has the following responsibilities:

- To report the incident(s) as soon as possible, especially if their safety and/or the safety of others is at risk.
- To provide as much detail as possible about the alleged conduct, including the date, time, and location of the incident(s), the name of the person alleged to have engaged in misconduct, details of what happened and/or what was said, names of any witnesses, description of action taken (if any), and copies of any documents that may be relevant, e.g. a letter, email, or note that pertains to any matter in issue.
- To cooperate fully in the investigation and resolution of any concerns, incidents, and complaints.
- To uphold the strict confidentiality of all individuals involved in the matter and only discuss the matter to the extent which is necessary, e.g. with their legal counsel or representative, as is necessary to obtain advice with respect to any legal issues, or as directed by Gymnastics Nova Scotia or Gymnastics Canada, for the purposes of investigating or taking corrective action with respect to the incident or complaint, or as otherwise required by law.
- To refrain from knowingly submitting a false, malicious, vexatious, or spurious report of misconduct or complaint to Gymnastics Nova Scotia; any individual found to have made a mischievous, intentionally false, or malicious complaint will render themselves liable to disciplinary action.

An individual who makes a complaint has the right to obtain a fair and timely investigation of the complaint without fear of retaliation and to be represented by another (uninvolved) individual of their choice, including legal counsel, at any stage in the process.

Gymnastics Nova Scotia will also accept reports from Complainants who wish to remain anonymous, but it may not be possible for Gymnastics Nova Scotia, in such an event, to conduct an appropriate investigation and/or adequately address and remedy the situation.

18.6 REPORTING AND HANDLING MINOR INFRACTIONS

Minor infractions are a single incidence of behaviour resulting in a breach of the expected standards of conduct that generally does not have the potential to result in significant harm to others. Examples of minor infractions include, but are not limited to:

- a single instance of disrespectful comments or behaviour directed towards others;
- a single instance of unsportsmanlike conduct;
- a single instance of a team member or support staff member breaking team rules that do not constitute a major infraction;
- conduct contrary to the values of Gymnastics Nova Scotia;
- minor violations of Gymnastics Nova Scotia's Code of Ethics and Conduct; or
- a single instance of non-compliance with the policies, procedures, rules, or regulations of Gymnastics Nova Scotia.

The definition of a minor infraction excludes any instance of abuse, harassment, or discrimination as outlined in the Gymnastics Nova Scotia Abuse, Maltreatment and Discrimination Policy. Such an allegation is automatically considered a major infraction (see section 18.7 below). Note however, that a single incidence of the behaviour described above, in the event it has a lasting harmful effect on a person or a group of people, may also constitute a major infraction.

18.6.1 Procedures to Resolve Minor Infractions

18.6.1.1 Minor Infraction Outside of Competitions

Procedures for dealing with minor infractions outside of competitions shall be determined at the discretion of the person responsible for the program or activity during which the infraction occurred. Such minor infractions must be addressed as soon as possible.

18.6.1.2 Minor Infractions during a Competition Time-Period

Minor infractions that occur within a competition time-period will be dealt with immediately by the appropriate Gymnastics Nova Scotia person having authority over the event, activity, or team in question. The competition time-period starts with travel to the competition and ends with the conclusion of travel from a competition.

Misconduct that occurs during a competition and results in disciplinary action will be reported to Gymnastics Nova Scotia as soon as possible, but no later than two days after the competition, by the Head of Delegation and/or Technical Director, using the Gymnastics Nova Scotia Incident Report Form.

18.6.1.3 Disciplinary Procedures for a Minor Infraction

A disciplinary meeting with the individual accused shall be held as soon as reasonably possible and arranged by the designated person of authority. The disciplinary meeting may take place in person, by phone, or other electronic means, such as videoconferencing.

Prior to the disciplinary meeting, the individual accused of the minor infraction, i.e. the respondent, must:

- a. be informed in a timely manner once a complaint has been made;
- b. cooperate fully in the investigation and resolution of any concerns, incidents, and complaints;
- c. refrain from any form of reprisal against anyone involved in the investigation;
- d. be provided with a written summary of the allegation(s), including the nature of the infraction and the specific clause within the Code of Ethics and Conduct Policy that has allegedly been contravened;
- e. be advised that they are not to discuss the complaint, incident, investigation, or their testimony with other people, witnesses, or third parties unless necessary to obtain legal advice;
- f. be afforded an opportunity to respond to the complaint by providing information and documents concerning the alleged incident. This information may be provided during a phone call, videoconference, or in person depending on the timing and logistics involved; and
- g. be afforded the opportunity to be represented or accompanied by another (uninvolved) individual of their choice, including legal counsel, at any stage of the process including at the disciplinary meeting.

Where a Respondent denies the allegations made, the discussion should nonetheless be treated as a formal warning that inappropriate behaviour will not be tolerated.

Information about the allegations and the Respondent's response must be available to all those making any disciplinary decision about the matter on a "need to know" basis.

A decision regarding disciplinary or corrective action can be made immediately after the discussion, but no later than 24 hours after the disciplinary meeting. The person of authority will either set aside the report of misconduct if it is unfounded or uphold the report (in part or in its entirety), in order to apply the appropriate disciplinary measures noted below.

Once a decision is made, the person of authority must inform the parties, in writing, of the results of the investigation and of any corrective action that will be taken as a result of the investigation.

18.6.2 Disciplinary Measures for Minor Infractions

The following conduct sanctions may be applied, individually or in combination, for minor infractions:

- a. verbal reprimand;
- b. written reprimand to be placed in the individual's file;
- c. verbal apology to recipient(s) of infraction and/or Gymnastics Nova Scotia;
- d. hand-delivered written apology to recipient(s) of infraction and/or Gymnastics Nova Scotia;
- e. suspension from current or upcoming competitions;
- f. other penalties as may be considered appropriate for the offence.

18.7 REPORTING AND HANDLING MAJOR INFRACTIONS

Major infractions are instances of misconduct that result or have the potential to result in harm to other persons, to Gymnastics Nova Scotia, or its reputation, and/or to the sport of gymnastics. Examples of major infractions include, but are not limited to:

- a. Repeated minor infractions;
- b. Behaviour that constitutes abuse of any kind, harassment (including psychological harassment), discrimination, or other serious misconduct;
- c. Major incidents of violence (e.g., fighting, attacking);
- d. Pranks, jokes, or other activities that endanger the safety and well-being of others;
- e. Major or repeated violations of Gymnastics Nova Scotia's Code of Ethics and Conduct Policy;
- f. Any violations of Gymnastics Nova Scotia's Abuse, Maltreatment, and Discrimination Policy;
- g. Conduct that interferes with a competition or with any athlete's preparation for a competition;
- h. Consistent or deliberate disregard for the policies, procedures, rules or regulations of Gymnastics Nova Scotia, Gymnastics Canada and/or the rules of the Fédération Internationale de Gymnastique (FIG);
- i. Intentional damage to Gymnastics Nova Scotia's property or improper handling of Gymnastics Nova Scotia's finances;
- j. Conduct that intentionally damages the image, credibility, or reputation of Gymnastics Nova Scotia, including actions taken despite a clear conflict of interest;
- k. Excessive use of alcohol, any use of alcohol or cannabis by minors, use of illicit drugs and narcotics, or use of banned performance enhancing drugs or methods; and
- l. A conviction for any offence under the Criminal Code, R.S.C., 1985, c. C-46.

Major infractions will be reviewed, investigated, and decided using the disciplinary procedures set out in this Policy. Allegations of a major infraction should be reported as soon as possible after the alleged misconduct has occurred. Historical reports of major infractions may also be reported to Gymnastics Nova Scotia.

18.7.1 A Minor Filing or Responding to a Complaint

If the Complainant or Respondent is a minor registered participant, the Case Manager will communicate with both the Complainant or Respondent and a "Responsible Adult". The "Responsible Adult" will have the right to act on behalf of the Complainant or Respondent throughout the complaint process, including:

- a. providing assistance with filing or responding to the Complaint;
- b. receiving all notices and correspondence on behalf of the Complainant or Respondent; and
- c. being present at all dealings with the Complainant or Respondent, at all stages in the process. The "Responsible Adult" should be the minor's parent or legal guardian. In unusual cases, the minor may be assisted in filing or responding to a complaint by another adult designated as the "Responsible Adult", but the parent or legal guardian must always be aware and kept apprised of the filing and proceedings at all stages of the process.

18.7.2 Reviewing Complaints of Major Infractions

The designated recipient at Gymnastics Nova Scotia will receive the Complaint Form and any attachments submitted and review the content for completeness and adherence to the submission procedures. If the documentation is either incomplete or missing, the Complainant will be asked to provide completed documentation.

If the Executive Director is named as a party to the complaint or is in conflict of interest due to their relationship with the Complainant or Respondent, another senior staff member will be designated by the Gymnastics Nova Scotia Chair to fulfill and assume the responsibilities within the process.

18.7.3 Suspension of Activity While Complaint is Under Review

The Executive Director, on behalf of Gymnastics Nova Scotia, may determine that an allegation is sufficiently serious to warrant a provisional suspension of the responding registered participant, pending investigation of the complaint. In addition to the Case Manager, the complaint may also be reviewed by other external experts (e.g., legal), if necessary, to determine if a provisional suspension is warranted. A provisional suspension has the effect of revoking all participation privileges for the duration of time stated in the suspension order.

18.7.4 Major Infraction Occurring During a Competition

If a major infraction is alleged to have occurred during a competition by an athlete or member of the team personnel, that individual may similarly be provisionally suspended or removed from the competition at the discretion of the Executive Director, Technical Director, Head of Delegation, or other designated person of Gymnastics Nova Scotia.

The individual may also be sent back to their home residence. The complaint process will then proceed as outlined in this Policy.

18.7.5 Case Manager Investigation and Report

Upon review by the designated recipient at Gymnastics Nova Scotia, the completed Complaint Form and any attachments are forwarded directly to the external Case Manager for review. The external Case Manager is an individual with expertise in athlete welfare and protection who volunteers or is contracted by Gymnastics Nova Scotia to independently appoint an external third-party investigator if appropriate and report findings and conclusions.

The Case Manager will proceed as follows:

- a. review the complaint and determine whether the documented concerns must be reported to the relevant law enforcement authorities, if not yet contacted;
- b. contact the person who filed the Complaint (now called the Complainant), inform them in writing of the steps of the investigation process, what the investigation will cover, the timeframe of the investigation, what solutions or results are possible, and who will make the final decision regarding the investigation and advise them on the preparation of any additional documentation that could or should be submitted;
- c. contact the person(s) against whom the complaint has been filed (now called the Respondent), provide them with a copy of the Complaint and Discipline Policies and Procedures and any other relevant policies or legislation against which the Respondent's behaviour will be measured, as well as a summary of the allegations. The Case Manager will inform them in writing on the steps of the investigation process, what the investigation will cover, the timeframe of the investigation, what solutions or results are possible, and who will make the final decision regarding the investigation and advise them on the preparation of any responding documentation that could or should be submitted;
- d. ensure that any investigations are commenced within a timely manner; In cases of sufficiently serious alleged misconduct, wherein the Gymnastics Nova Scotia Harassment officer or an external third-party investigator is hired to conduct an investigation, the timeline for investigation is directed and managed by these parties. In all cases, complaints are investigated and managed as efficiently as possible.
- e. advise both the Complainant and the Respondent of their right to be represented or accompanied throughout the process by another individual of their choice, including legal counsel;
- f. advise the Complainant, the Respondent, and any witnesses that they are not to discuss the complaint, incident, investigation, or their testimony with others unless necessary to obtain legal advice with respect to any legal issues.
- g. collect additional information and separately conduct personal interviews with the Complainant, the Respondent, and any witnesses who may have relevant information about the alleged infractions;
- h. keep both the Complainant and the Respondent informed as the investigation progresses;
- i. review the interviews, document any inconsistencies, and compile a Case Manager Report taking into consideration all the information made available by all parties, including information discovered in the course of an external investigation that may have taken place;
- j. make any recommendations and forward the report to the Executive Director for review and discussion.

18.7.6 Refusal to Participate in the Investigation

ARTICLE IV.2 – BOARD OF DIRECTORS

ROLE AND FUNCTION

The Board of Directors is the governing body of GNS. It charts the future direction of GNS and ensures that it stays on course. The Board is responsible for the strategic plan of GNS and also for overseeing GNS's operation.

Duties of a Board of Directors include formulation of GNS's mission, goals, and objectives as well as GNS's policies. The Board approves major financial decisions including the annual budget and major investments and ensures that an annual report is sent to members. The Board maintains, revises and enforces the By-Laws of GNS. The Board must ensure GNS is effectively governing by holding regular elections and by filling interim Board vacancies.

It is essential to have key persons with the necessary sophistication or expertise on the Board. Without these decision makers, the Board cannot make the necessary decisions and commit the necessary funds to make things happen. Board Members should represent all segments and interests of GNS's membership, not just their own viewpoints or that of their own businesses.

Listed below are eleven qualities that each Director doesn't necessarily have to have but the Board in total should: integrity, wisdom, independence, a valid business or professional knowledge and expertise that could help with various problems and deliberations, a track record of accomplishment with other organizations, an understanding and a general acceptance of the organization's philosophy, an inquiring mind, a willingness to speak one's mind, and an ability to challenge and stimulate management.

The Functions and Responsibilities of Board Members Which Promote Success:

1. Attend and actively participate in all meetings. Review your portfolio and be prepared to work in this capacity for the benefit of all members of the GNS community.
2. Represent the member's views and interests honestly and accurately, but remember that you are responsible to them to advise and act in their interests on matters for which you may have no detailed knowledge of their views. Your judgment is the reason you were elected. A second component of this responsibility is to adopt a view that you represent the membership at large. The purpose of an umbrella Association is to act in the general interest, and it is your duty to see that this takes place. Bringing regional or local issues to the Board through informal means is counter-productive. The best way to serve your local constituency is by ensuring that the group develops policies and programs that are universally fair and objective.
3. Be informed about the issues in order to discuss them responsibly.
4. Know and understand the roles and responsibilities of the Board, committees and staff members.
5. Do your homework before the meetings -- review the minutes of the last meeting and the policy and procedures manual, if necessary.
6. Be aware of both legal and financial responsibilities.
7. Endorse the collective decisions of the Board publicly (even if you don't share them personally). Be a booster and not a complainer outside the Board.
8. Insist on adequate preparation from the staff.
9. Accept promotion or special projects only if you are confident that you will do well for the organization.
10. Remember that you hold a position of trust. Maintain Board businesses and client confidentiality.
11. Be involved in one or more committees.

The Board of Directors, during times where the General Meeting is not in session, shall be vested full powers to manage the affairs of the Association. The Board of Directors may appoint an Executive Committee and other committees to carry out management duties as it deems necessary.

The Board of Directors consists of 15 as per below:

- a) President
- b) Past-President
- c) Vice-President
- d) Secretary

- e) Treasurer
- f) Women's Program Director
- g) Men's Program Director
- h) Trampoline and Tumbling Program Director
- i) Education and Recreational Director
- j) (6) Members -At-Large

To qualify for an office of the Board of Directors, each candidate shall be a registered member of the Association. Any member of the society shall be eligible to be elected a director of the Society and a director of the society shall be a member. The subscribers to the Memorandum of Association of the Society shall be the first directors of the Society.

The Past President may elect in writing not to be a serving member of the Board and in such case, the General Meeting may elect an additional member-at-large. Should such occurrence happen subsequent to the General Meeting, the Board is empowered to appoint an additional member-at-large.

A nomination for office must come from an Active member of the Association or from the Nominating Committee.

Each member of the Board of Directors shall hold office for two (2) years and may be eligible for re- election for the same office. Directors shall be elected to two year terms, with one-half of the directors elected each year. Any member of the Board of Directors who serves half a term or less may be re-elected to the same office.

Directors shall retire from office at the end of each annual general meeting at which their successors are elected. Retiring directors shall be eligible for re-election

The Board of Directors shall not be paid any sum for services as such, but may be reimbursed for expenses incurred on behalf of the Association. No funds of the society shall be paid to or be available for the personal benefit of any member.

If a director resigns their office or ceases to be a member in the Society, their office as director shall be vacated and the vacancy may be filled for the unexpired portion of the term by the board of directors from among the members of the Society.

The members may, by special resolution, remove any director and appoint another person to complete the term of office.

The Board of Directors shall meet regularly with the exceptions of July and August. The Board of Directors shall meet no less than five (5) times each year.

A meeting of the Board of Directors may be held at the close of every annual general meeting without notice for the purpose of electing officers. For all other board meetings, notice is required and must:

- a) specify the date, time and place of the meeting
- b) be given to the directors seven (7) days prior to the meeting
- c) be given to the directors by newsletters, email, fax and /or other electronic means,
- d) the non-receipt of notice by any director shall not invalidate the proceedings.
- e) Notice can be waived for board meetings with the unanimous approval of the Board.

Six (6) members of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum at a Board meeting. No business shall be conducted at any meeting of the board of directors unless a quorum is present to open the meeting and, upon request, before any vote.

The Board of Directors may, from time to time, invite to meetings such persons they deem advisable to act as consultants. All motions are passed by a simple majority.

Each member of the Board of Directors shall have one vote.

The Board of Directors shall have the power to appoint annually all delegates to the Annual General Meeting of Gymnastics Canada.

For dereliction of duty, physical incapacity or continued absence without cause, a member of the Board of Directors may be removed by a majority vote of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall then appoint by reason of the above, a person to fill the unexpired term of such a member until the next Annual General Meeting of the Association, at which time, an election shall be held to fill the unexpired term. The member, who has been so removed, may appeal the decision of the Board of Directors at a meeting called by the President for that reason. If, during their term of the office a member should resign, the Board of Directors may appoint a person to fill the unexpired term of such a member until the next Annual General Meeting of the Association.

The Board of Directors shall, at its first meeting after election to office, appoint by resolution the persons empowered to sign cheques and other banking documentation of the Association. The signature of any two (2) of the signing officers shall be necessary on each document. The positions of Chairperson of committees and other positions not covered in the By-Laws shall be appointed by the Board of Directors.

Contracts, deeds, bills of exchange and other instruments and documents may be executed on behalf of GNS by the President or the Vice-President and the Corporate Secretary, or otherwise as prescribed by the resolution of the Board of Directors

Conflict of Interest

Directors who have, or could reasonably be seen to have, a conflict of interest have a duty to declare this interest. The declaration should be made to the members

- a) Upon nomination, and
- b) If serving as a director, when the possibility of a conflict is realized.

A conflict of interest does not prevent a member from serving as a director provided that they withdraw from the decision making on matters pertaining to that interest. The withdrawal should be recorded in the minutes.

vi) Officials' Responsibilities

The Role of the Judge:

The role of the Judge is as an evaluator of the routines performed within the confines of the technical rules. You should also consider yourself as an ambassador of the province and the sport at all times.

Philosophy

The ultimate goal of a Judge is to be seen as an objective Judge; one who is not affected by personal likes, one who does not cater to prejudices, one who does not allow personal aspirations to affect their relations to and with coaches, athletes and other officials. Strictly speaking, you are an evaluator of a routine, but you are more than that. At each competition, you are the culmination of the athlete's training to that point, and so, you represent more than a means to evaluation. Your score is reflective of not only the athlete's skill, it also reflects the athlete's training, and to some extent, the relationship between the athlete and coach. All in all, your judging should be taken very seriously.

Effect and Approach

As a judge, you are the highest technical authority present. You know all the rules and can interpret any rule at any time and in any situation. This is how you are seen. There is considerable respect for you as an official that at times in some degrees, particularly from the athletes, may be accompanied by fear and/or nervousness.

Respect itself is not a tangible element. It is an attitude. Part of the Coaches' role is to give their athletes a proper degree of respect for the officials. Whatever mechanism the coach uses to do this, your role is not to attenuate this process. With "first time" competitors, and particularly, younger athletes, the measure of respect may be purely salutatory; they have been told how to behave towards you. Your role is to enhance this respect. How do you do this? The short form mandates that "you have to give it to get it". Irregardless of the quantity or quality of the athlete's training and routine performances, you should have great measure of respect for the athletes. Any commitment, whether large or small, is by definition a consignment to sacrifice. This, of itself, demands respect.

The physical manifestation of your respect, particularly towards the athlete is through your approach to judging. You deserve and will demand the respect of your peers and you will conduct yourself with the dignity your position demands. You may approach your duties in a variety of manners dependent on your own personality, but you must at all times convey the impression that you are relaxed, confident and approachable.

Throughout your judging career, you will be asked a multitude of questions by athletes, coaches, other judges and parents. Some will be quite involved and some will seem patently ridiculous; whatever the case, you should make every effort to answer any question regarding the judging process as honestly as possible. You are not only an evaluator, but an instructor and an educator. This process is an ongoing one and its evolution is interesting and rewarding. Sincerity and a friendly approach to all participants, particularly the athletes, will go a long way to alleviating any fear or nervousness. It is not wrong to be on the side of the athlete. In fact, it is to be commended; you are there ostensibly for the athletes and so, the approach to judging that you develop can have a strong positive effect on the athletes, and their careers in the sport.

The Expectations.

- 1) Must be registered with Gymnastics Nova Scotia and the Gymnastics Canada.
- 2) Be aware of, understand and follow the Gymnastics Nova Scotia Code of Ethics and Conduct.
- 3) Should be well qualified in the sport, understand techniques and know the rules of judging thoroughly.
- 4) Through reasonable and prudent means, including clinics, should keep judging knowledge current.
- 5) Be expected to be up to date on the international rules, rule interpretations and current provincial modifications.
- 6) Must attend all required clinics.
- 7) Must attend a Judging Clinic when available and necessary to maintain certification
- 8) Must be prepared for each judging assignment.
- 9) Be a cooperative working member of the assigned judging panel.
- 10) Aim towards a goal of perpetual objectivity to:
 - be completely unbiased.
 - not allow anything to influence or give the appearance of affecting judgment in rendering fair and impartial scores.
 - behave professionally.
 - not attempt to explain other official's judgments or decisions to either coach, team or affiliate.
 - give the best effort in every meet judged.
 - treat athletes, coaches and other judges, volunteers and spectators with respect and encourage reciprocal treatment.
- 11) Possess a complete understanding of protest procedures and actions regarding questions from coaches concerning scores. Refer to the appropriate Technical Handbook on protest procedures.
- 12) Wear proper uniform during competition.
- 13) Maintain records and submit your record book to the Judging Chairperson at the end of the competitive season.
- 14) Be aware of, understand and follow any specific regulations outlined in the Program Handbook for judges.
